

Jenifer Henderson, Senior Advisor
North America Energy and Environment Advocacy

Jenifer Henderson is the Senior Advisor for North America Energy and Environment Advocacy at the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development (DFATD) in Ottawa, Canada. Her responsibilities include developing advocacy strategies and tools on North American energy and environment issues, and providing support to the network of Canadian missions in the U.S. in their energy and environment advocacy efforts.

Prior to her current assignment, Jenifer served three years in the Political section at the Embassy of Canada in Bogota, Colombia. She has also worked as Executive Assistant to the Assistant Deputy Minister of Bilateral Relations and in the Middle East Division at DFATD headquarters. Before joining the Foreign Service, Jenifer worked at Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada.

Jenifer holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Calgary and a Masters of Arts degree in Public Policy and Public Administration from Concordia University in Montreal. She is married with two sons.