

Joel Wessman, Political-Economic Relations Officer
Consulate General of Canada, Minneapolis, MN

Joel Wessman is the Political-Economic Relations Officer at the Consulate General of Canada in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he represents the Government of Canada in a five-state region that includes Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa. His responsibilities include developing and implementing strategic engagement and advocacy programs; engaging with public and private sector officials and representatives; and researching, analyzing, and reporting on political and economic trends, regional attitudes, and public policy developments that impact the bilateral United States – Canada relationship.

Prior to his employment with the Government of Canada, Joel worked as an aide in the policy management office (cabinet and legislative affairs) of the Office of the Governor of Minnesota, and as a program coordinator in the University of Minnesota's Office of University Relations.

Joel holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Political Science and Public Policy, both from the University of Minnesota. He lives in Plymouth, Minnesota, with his wife, Heidi, and three sons, Soren, Markus, and Kai.