

Steve Connelly, Vice President
Mid-West Agriculture, RDO

Steve is the Vice President of Mid-West Agriculture overseeing the locations in Minnesota, South Dakota, and North Dakota he has been with RDO for the last 10 years. Steve grew up on the family farm South of Moorhead graduating from Moorhead High School, following this up with an undergraduate degree from Concordia College (Moorhead, MN) and a master's degree from South Dakota State University (Brookings, SD). He currently serves on the Minnesota Agriculture in the Classroom (MAITC) Foundation Board of Directors.

Before accepting a position with RDO he was an instructor at Moorhead High School as well as the head football coach. Steve also served in the North Dakota National Guard retiring after 21 years of service.

He currently lives in Moorhead with his wife, Shelly, and two sons Jack (16) and Grant (14).