

Robert Millman, Office of the Manitoba Fairness Commissioner

Robert is a planning and policy analyst for the Office of the Manitoba Fairness Commissioner and has been with the office since it opened in 2009. During his tenure at the Office of the Manitoba Fairness Commissioner, Robert has acquired extensive knowledge of fairness issues and regulatory assessment and registration practice.

Mr. Millman has a Master's degree in sociology from the University of Manitoba.