

2017 International Legislators Forum

Biography

Barb & Clarence Nepinak

Pine Creek First Nation
Winnipeg, MB

H: (204) 831-8655

Cnepinak1@shaw.ca

Barbara and Clarence Nepinak are members of the Pine Creek First Nation and are both retired from long, successful careers in Provincial/Federal public service. They both serve on the Special Indigenous Advisory Council to the Canadian Museum for Human Rights, and the Advisory Council at University of Brandon as well as Arts & Cultural Industries, and are engaged in research projects with the University of Manitoba, focused on the Developmental Origins of Chronic Diseases in Children Network (DEVOTION).

Barbara and Clarence have been recognized as Traditional Wisdom Keepers by the Circle of Educators of Manitoba, received the Queens Golden Jubilee Award, serve as members of the Honorary Cabinet for the Royal Aviation Museum of Western Canada, and have been delivering school and public programming (arts, Ojibwe language instruction, storytelling and walking tours) for nearly 20 years.